

THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SUSTAINABILITY SCIENCE IN ASIA (ICSS-ASIA)

MARCH 2-4, 2011, HANOI, VIETNAM

Organized by Integrated Research System for Sustainability Science (IR3S), The University of Tokyo and Vietnam National University (VNU), Hanoi

Co-organized by Asian Institute of Technology Vietnam (AITVN) and United Nations University (UNU)

Conference scope:

ICSS-Asia endeavors to be a platform for sharing knowledge on present status and approaches for sustainable development, and for linking academic institutions with international funding agencies for project development. In the second ICSS-Asia, climate change, urban-rural development, and role of education/capacity building will be discussed in the context of sustainability. The conference invites representatives of academic networks, academic and research institutions, academic societies, and international aid agencies.
